

JooJoo Yoga Terms and Conditions

1. Cancellation of private lessons must be given with a minimum of 24 hours notice. Failure to do so before any session will result in the client being charged in full.
2. All Group Courses must be redeemed within the set time frame of the course dates. Missed classes will not be refunded or credited towards another Course.
*If JooJoo Yoga has to postpone a class for any reason, the class will be added onto the end of the course.
3. Any changes to students health, must be reported in writing to JooJoo Yoga as soon as possible so that lesson plans can be adapted accordingly.
4. I / We, the student do consent to JooJoo Yoga taking images/videos during the session for marketing purposes.
5. If you would like to change your regular slot or postpone for any reason, (e.g for holidays etc.) please give two weeks notice, prior to the date and time you wish to change.
6. If you do not feel well or comfortable during any point of a session, please make the instructor aware immediately.

By agreeing to these terms and conditions you will help us continue to improve and provide a high standard of service and consistency for our clients.

Many thanks for your cooperation and understanding.

Best regards

Nina
JooJoo Yoga